Hollywood, California – Starting this Sunday, November 22nd, the Renaissance Hollywood Hotel & Spa will begin hosting the KJAZZ 88.1FM Sunday Champagne Brunch Series from 11:00am-2:00pm in Twist Restaurant. The KJAZZ brunches will continue every Sunday featuring high quality jazz artists and live broadcasts from KJAZZ DJ's. The brunch, which includes all you can eat and drink from a wide variety of stations throughout the restaurant including omelet's, eggs Benedict, waffles, carved prime rib, hot entrees, salads, desserts, champagne, mimosas and much, much, more.

“We are very excited about our partnership with KJAZZ 88.1FM and the new addition to our ever expanding event lineup with the All You Can Eat and Drink Sunday Champagne Jazz Brunches at the Renaissance Hollywood Hotel & Spa,” says Dan Shaughnessy, Director of Sales and Marketing at the Renaissance Hollywood Hotel & Spa. “We are seeing more and more people showing up each week at our Indie Thursdays and now with the addition of the KJAZZ Sunday Brunch Series, we are offering some of the best music around for everyone’s taste.”

The KJAZZ Sunday Brunch series will kick off with Pete Christlieb and his Tall & Small Band. From the 1970s through the 1990s, the sound of Pete’s tenor sax could be heard on television and motion picture sound tracks and recordings.

“He is a tower of power on the instrument and plays it with great command, singularity and inventiveness. A few notes and you know it’s Pete. The kind of original voice all Jazz players strive to achieve seems to flow effortlessly from the bell of his horn.” - Jazz Profiles

Pete is best know for his twenty years in Doc Severnson's big band on Johnny

Carson's Tonight Show and is arguably one of the best jazz saxophonists alive today.
